Seeking Defeat.

A base ball club from Dumpville is hunting for a matched game with one of the Sedalia clubs. They say the Dumpville nine is a holy terror, but when they meet the Sedalia club it will be found that they are not the only holy terrors in the country.

A WIDER RANGE.

If only there's nothing but malice, my friend,
To worry or wound on the way as we go;
Then life may be left of its trials and end
With only the semblance of sorrow or woe.

No journey away was ever, I ween,
Quite free from a jar, or perchance, of a fret,
No wheels ever turned that a friction between
Its axles and tire at times did not get.

So, ever our feet must find in their path,
Some wrong, or some hate, which envy
doth stir,
Some thing which, unclean, enfolds in its
wrath—
The sting of a serpent, the bite of a cur.

And shall we then lose the fragrance that blooms
O'er yon where the sweet-briar in modesty smiles?

Shall we miss the glad hills where forests
have room
To wave their green arms for miles upon miles?

Shall we breathe not the breath of the morning
wet with dew,
And freighted with scents of the valley
or mead?

Or fail to behold the canopy blue,
Which pinned up with stars lies fair o'er-
head?

Shall we not the many who loved,
since the few
Have hated and wronged us from day
unto day?

And garner the thistle, entwined with the rose,
While roses smile up at us, close by the way?

Nay; wider the range of the soul which perceives
Not the smallness and meanness of trivial things;
But mounts to a plane where faith still believes

Life rounds best by music of angelic wings.

MEXICAN VETERANS

The Annual Reunion at Higginville.

The reunion of Mexican War veterans at Higginville yesterday was largely attended and was a great success.

The veterans met in the north section of the amphitheater and were called to order by President Smith of Warsaw. After prayer by Rev. Burchfield of Sweet Springs, an address of welcome was delivered by Major J. W. Branch of Higginville followed by a reply by Col. T. P. Hoy of Sedalia the secretary of the association.

Then J. C. Tarsney of Kansas City the member of congress from the Higginville district was introduced by President Smith and delivered an interesting address.

After the address the veterans fell into line and headed by Col. H. M. Bledsoe marched to dinner. After grace by Rev. Birchfield, the veterans proceeded to enjoy the elegant repast spread before them. Mrs. Miller was introduced by president Smith and she offered her services to wait upon the veterans at their meal. She said she had when but a girl 14 years old helped the members of Col. Doniphan's regiment to refreshments when they arrived at St. Louis on their way home and now she wanted the pleasure of waiting on them again. The veterans thanked her, but said it would afford them greater pleasure to wait upon her and invited her to occupy the post of honor at the table.

The association re-assembled at 2 o'clock and listened to a very interesting report by President Smith also one from Col. Hoy the secretary and treasurer.

Resolutions were adopted returning thanks to the citizens of Higginville, to the fair association and Mayor Branch for the generous hospitality extended to the association; also thanks to Hon. J. C. Tarsney for his interesting address, to W. B. Major, the committeeman, for his excellent preparations, and offering condolence in his bereavement occasioned by the death of a member of his family.

The meeting closed with the election of the officers for the ensuing year as follows:

Capt. S. W. Smith, of Warsaw, president; T. E. Staples, of Nelson, and H. M. Bledsoe, of Pleasant Hill, for vice presidents; Col. T. P. Hoy, of Sedalia, secretary and treasurer. The executive committee was increased by the addition of W. B. Major, of Aultville, R. M. Scott, of Keytesville, and Steve Calloway, of Fayette.

The association decided to hold its next reunion at Fayette, September 25th, 1890.

STARTLING EVIDENCE.

Of the Cure of Skin Diseases when all other Methods Fail.

Psoriasis 5 years, covering face, head and entire body with white scabs. Skin red, itchy, and bleeding. Hair all gone. Spent hundreds of dollars. Pronounced incurable. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my nose, and almost covering my face. It ran into my eyes, and the physician was afraid I would lose my eyesight altogether. It spread all over my head, and my hair all fell out, until I was entirely bald-headed. It then broke out on my arms and shoulders, until my arms were just one sore. It covered my entire body, my face, head, and shoulders being the worst. The white scabs fell constantly from my head, shoulders, and arms; the skin would crack and be red and very itchy, and would crack and bleed if scratched. After spending many hundreds of dollars, I was pronounced incurable. I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using two bottles CUTICURA RESOLVENT I could see a change; and after I had taken four bottles, I was almost cured; and when I had used six bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT and one box of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I thought the disease would leave a very deep scar, but the CUTICURA REMEDIES cured it without any scars. I cannot express with a pen what I suffered before using the CUTICURA REMEDIES. They saved my life, and I feel it my duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as good as ever, and so is my eyesight. I know of a number of different persons who have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and all have received great benefit from their use.

Insane.

The probate court was occupied this afternoon with the trial of the question of insanity of James L. Hall, a well-to-do farmer living about half way between this city and Dresden. He has been subject to spells for some time when he would be clearly out of his mind, but a few days ago he became violent and it became necessary to take steps to have him taken care of by public authority. The case is on trial before a jury of 12 men, but there is but little doubt but what they will declare him a fit subject for the asylum. He has a family and is in good circumstances.

On a Bad Road.

Charley Summers and Alfred Ferguson a pair of white boys, aged 10 and 9 respectively were tried before Justice Halstead yesterday for burglarizing the residence of Ed Maushand of Jefferson street. Summers entered the house and secured a small sum of money while Ferguson watched, the family being temporarily absent. As the boys were too young to punish in any of the ways known to the law. The Justice released them on condition that their mothers give them an old fashioned spanking. The mothers were present and later in the day one of the boys came down town on an errand and it was noticed that every now and then he felt the rear part of his anatomy to see whether it was all there, and it is presumed that his mother did as she agreed.

Distance Lends Enchantment.

Maud has a fine figure, good face and pretty name. One should see her at a distance. When she began to talk, you realized that she never used SOZODONT. Her breath was unlike the breezes of Araby the blest.

CURSED HIS AUNT.

A Flip Young Man Lodged in Jail For Being Ill Tempered.

On the 6th of last September a young man named Henry Garrett went to the residence of John Yarnell in Flat Creek township and raised a general disturbance by cursing and abusing Mrs. Yarnell, his aunt. Mr. Yarnell was so enraged over the matter that he came before Justice Blair and had a warrant issued for the arrest of his nephew. The constable made two trips to Flat Creek after the young man, but he in some manner eluded the officer and finally left the country and did not show up again until yesterday. He supposed that the case had settled itself somehow, and he concluded to return to his old haunts again. As he passed through the city yesterday en route home the constable discovered him and forthwith took him into custody. He pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and cost amounting in all to $12. He did not have the money to pay, and was lodged in jail. His father was in town but he declared that the young man should get no help from him.

A Disappointed Couple.

Yesterday afternoon Recorder Landmann was astonished when a great big strapping man came into his office leading a little girl and demanded a marriage license. He said his name was W. T. Brewer of Saline county, and the woman at his side was Miss Jennie Lee Flower, also of Saline county. He gave his age 30 while she said she was 15. She had a note purporting to be from her father giving his consent to the marriage and directing the recorder to issue the license. The recorder, however, could not accept such an order and declined to issue the license. The girl, if she is 15, she is young appearing for her age. The couple stepped out side of the office and held a brief consultation after which they started off looking exceedingly dejected.

An Interesting Note.

Considerable curiosity was aroused yesterday by dainty perfumed note in feminine hand writing picked up near the M., K. & T. general offices. It reads:

DEAR JOE—I will be at Sunday school at 9 o'clock Sunday morning.
Forever thine,
IRENE.

The note had the appearance of having been sent through the mail and the chances are that Joe got it in due time and will be at Sunday school. If Joe don't go to Sunday school after getting as nice a hint as that his father ought to whale him for neglecting the means of grace.

—Persons wanting prosthetic dentistry will do well to consult Dr. Wilson. Charges reasonable. Comfortable, easy fit, natural expression; first-class execution of work guaranteed.

Bit by a Rat.

J. B. Barnhart is suffering from a wound caused by the bite of a rat which threatens to cause him the loss of a part, if not all, of his left hand. About four weeks ago he was threshing in the country and at night he, with a party of threshers, went to the barn to sleep on the hay. They spread quilts down and were quite comfortable until the rats began to run over them. One big fellow stopped on top of Barnhart's breast when he hit it with his hand. The rat gave a spring but landed on the hay against the side of Barnhart's head. Barnhart grabbed it frantically when it bit his hand. The wound apparently healed up, but a few days ago it began to swell up fearfully and the wound broke out into a bad-looking sore.

A Guardian Appointed.

Mr. Charles Turner has been appointed guardian for W. Hall, who was declared insane by a jury in the probate court Friday. The insane man will be sent to the asylum, but as he has plenty of means of his own, the county court will take no notice of the matter.

The Flannel Shirt Business.

Chicago Journal.

The father of four big, healthy and growing sons unbundled himself in the following strain in my hearing last evening; "At first I thought the flannel shirt business was a great thing," said he. "It will save laundry bills, I thought, and so, when my boys one after another put in applications for the article, I made no objection. Each of them got a fine flannel shirt, and for a while was happy. Was that the end of it? Well I guess not. Tom, my eldest came to me a few days after and said: 'Paw, can't I have a pair of cool, comfortable, tan shoes, they look so well with a flannel shirt for a negligee costume, don't you know? A year ago I'd have brained him if he'd used such a word, but I'm learning to bear a great deal lately, so I only sighed and bought him the shoes. Instantly there was a howl from the other three hopefuls. If Tom had tan shoes, so must they. I averted the storm by taking them all three down town and fitting them out as they wished, and then I thought my troubles were surely over. Not so, however. This morning that little dude Tom dropped into the office and coolly remarked that all the other boys who had flannel shirts and tan shoes had also a blazer jacket and a pair of white flannel tennis pants apiece, I succumbed after awhile, knowing that to surrender to Tom meant a similar course to the other three. This evening I am informed that they want a $7 tennis racket. Of course I'm going to fix 'em out, for I mean my boys to have what other boys have, so long as they are good. I think it was kind of low down however, to strike the old man for the shirt and shoes first in order to lead him gradually up to the tennis outfits. When I was a boy we used to play marbles and football and fight—not paste a soft ball at a cotton net with a cat-gut bat. If I'd known my boys were going to play tennis, I'd have sent them out on the plains and made men instead of dudes of them."

The Osage Baptist Association.

The 20th annual convention of the Osage Missionary Baptist Association was held at the Foster school house in Cole township, Benton county, last Thursday. The reports show that there were 12 deaths during the year, but the net gain in members for the present time is 652. The next meeting will be held at Brehear's Valley church on the Hickory county line 7 miles southeast of Fairfield on the Thursday before the 4th Sunday in next August.
